SCRIPTURE FOR MAY 20, 2012

Luke 7:1-10

7 When Jesus had finished saying all this^(B) to the people who were listening, he entered Capernaum. ² There a centurion's servant, whom his master valued highly, was sick and about to die. ³ The centurion heard of Jesus and sent some elders of the Jews to him, asking him to come and heal his servant. ⁴ When they came to Jesus, they pleaded earnestly with him, "This man deserves to have you do this, ⁵ because he loves our nation and has built our synagogue." ⁶ So Jesus went with them.

He was not far from the house when the centurion sent friends to say to him: "Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. ⁷ That is why I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and my servant will be healed."^(C) ⁸ For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and that one, 'Come,' and he comes. I say to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

⁹ When Jesus heard this, he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following him, he said, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith even in Israel." ¹⁰ Then the men who had been sent returned to the house and found the servant well.

Music Notes

The anthem "If Ye Love Me, Keep My Commandments" is a setting of the Ascension text John 14:15-17. The musical setting was written in 2004 by Seattle, Washington based composer-conductor Roupén Shakarian (b. 1950). Mr. Shakarian is a frequently commissioned composer of orchestral and choral works.
