*PRAYER OF ADORATION

CALL TO CONFESSION

Silent Prayer

Corporate Prayer of Confession

Gracious God,
just as your creating Word brought forth all that is,
so you promise to create new heavens and a new earth,
free from injustice, oppression, and brokenness.

Yet even with these promises, we often live in fear and despair.

We let anxiety make a home in our souls and helplessness take root in our spirits.

Forgive us, God, for our lack of trust, our tepid belief, and our reluctance to embrace a future dependent entirely on you.

Through Christ, the Risen One, we pray. Amen.

Congregational Response (Choir and Congregation)

Take, O take me as I am.
Summon out what I shall be.

Set your seal upon my heart and live in me.

Assurance of Pardon

*Congregational Response

Gloria Patri ..... GREATORIX

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH. .... From A Declaration of Faith

Jesus Christ stands at the center of the biblical record.

The Bible is the account of God's word and action in history, together with his people's response in faith.

It tells how the Lord has moved with Israel and the church
towards the kingdom of God,
his just and loving rule over all.

It is the story of the one God,
who is the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

That story is still unfolding
and in faith we make it our own.

It forms our memory and our hope.

It tells us who we are and what we are to do.

To retell it is to declare what we believe.

CONGREGATIONAL LIFE & CONCERNS

Only a few weeks ago we heard the spiritual "There is a Balm in Gilead" by William Dawson. Dawson, born in the dusk of the 19th century, saw his work carried into the future by the composer we bear this morning, Moses Hogan. This morning's anthem, "I Want to Thank You, Lord" is not a spiritual, but rather a gospel song. While Dawson and other writers of African American folk inspired music sought to hold onto the integrity of the spiritual, Hogan broke free, borrowing from jazz, blues and gospel traditions to create a new representation. Hogan resurrected African American choral music which by the 1980's had become staid. This morning you hear a rich combination of traditions that create a new sound for the choral medium. Hogan died too early in 2003, from a brain tumor, leaving us with a tremendous body of compositions and a revived tradition that we cherish today.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors,
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERING & OFFERTORY ANTHEM

I Want to Thank You, Lord ..... M. Hogan

"I want to thank you, Lord, for all you done.
I want to thank you, Lord, for the times of trouble,
Thank you, Lord, for protecting me,
Thank you, Jesus, Oh, for what you've done for me!
You were my friend when I had no friends.
I know on You I can depend.
You've been my mother and father, too.
You've been my sister and brother too."

~ The Covenant Choir ~

So God grant us for tomorrow

Make us partners in our living, our compassion to increase,
