Monthly Financial Comments
May 2018

Income Statement Comments

Operating Income: Total Operating Income remains below budget by ($89,426) on a year to date basis due to the combined effects of below budget Pledge Receipts ($54,134), Miscellaneous Contributions ($32,648) and Rec Wing revenues ($12,101). Pledge Receipts were 43% of the annual budget, which is slightly lower than last year. Preschool Tuition receipts remain higher than budget due to higher enrollments and High School Trips receipts are now just slightly below budget as fee payments have been received. It is worth noting that although Pledge Receipts remain below budget, the unfavorable variance for May of ($29,392) is significantly less than in April of ($73,294).

Operating Expenses: The majority of categories of expenses continue to be below budget, totaling a $69,368 favorable variance year to date. Personnel had the largest positive variance of $41,265 due to the current open positions followed by Education of $10,815 due primarily to Adult and High School Ministries. Food Service remains over budget partially offsetting the favorable trends due to food purchased in May for 3 large meals with the income not expected until June.

The Bottom Line: Expenses exceeded income for the month resulting in a “loss” for the month of ($76,311) compared to a budgeted “loss” of ($56,565). However, the strong January net income of $383,290 means that we continue to run a surplus for the year of $101,318 but the over budget deficits in the past couple of months have drawn it down to $20,058 below the budgeted surplus of $121,377. This compares to a budgeted surplus of $60,751 for the same period last year.

Balance Sheet Comments

The balance sheet continues to be healthy. Significant changes in Covenant’s Balance Sheet for May 31, compared to April 30, were as follows:

Assets/Liabilities:

Checking: Increase primarily reflects capital campaign contributions of $82,588 (which is also reflected in the increase in Restricted Funds balance).

General and Cornerstone Endowment Funds: Reflects the drop in the markets at the end of April. We value on a month delay basis.

Fund Balances:

Restricted Funds: Reflects the capital campaign contributions offset by P&E allocations from the Administration Fund.

Non-Budgeted Benevolences: Increase due to a one-time member donation to be distributed to our mission partners in the near future.

General Fund: Decrease reflects the net operating loss in May of $76,311.

SUBJECT: Allocation of P&E Strategic Funds                      DATE: June 11, 2018

Report From: Planning and Evaluation

Chair: John Baxter

Background: At the February 2018 meeting, Session approved the transfer of the 2017 General Fund Surplus in the amount of $68,580 to the P&E Reserve Fund. Typically, P&E disburses these funds for strategic purposes or projects over and above current budget. This allocation brought the P&E Reserve Fund balance to $88,500.

Uses of funds to date:

Education Ministry- $13,500 to the Adult Education Council to host a Convocation in the fall of 2018. It will be similar in size and scope to the “Charlotte’s Wake Up Call” in the winter of 2017.

Mission and Outreach Ministry- $22,000 to extend our current ministry to Highland Renaissance Academy by providing a critical and sustainable fitness and wellness program. This three-year program will support funding for coaches and equipment for basketball, cheerleading, rugby and soccer.

Administration Ministry: $17,000 for painting and carpeting for the first floor of the Sanctuary building. The painting is for the hallways and parlor. Carpeting will be replaced in selected areas of the first floor.

The balance of these funds, $36,000, will be held for an additional project which is still being evaluated.

Minutes from Presbytery Meeting May 15th, 2018

Covenant was represented at the 138th Stated Meeting of the Presbytery of Charlotte at Myers Park Presbyterian Church in Charlotte, by Elders Eric Davis, Sally Harriss, Marilyn Mickle, Anne McQuiston, Kay Wheeler, Reverend Bob Henderson, and Reverend Jessica Patchett.

2018 moderator Rev. Luke Maybry called the meeting to order at 9:30 am and opened with prayer. The welcome to attending members was provided by Rev Joseph Clifford, Pastor of Myers Park Presbyterian Church as the host church.

The Presbytery entered a time of worship led by Rev Gregory Busby, Sr. Pastor, McClintock Church. The sermon was preached by Rev. T. Denise Anderson titled "Relationships" which challenges churches to move forward by changing with the current society; "not dying but reforming". During the worship service, Rev. Luke Maybry presided over the installation of Rev. Dr. Jan Edmiston as General Presbyter of the Presbytery of Charlotte.

The Committee on Ministry Report Part I was presented by Rev. Tim Bostick. The Presbytery granted Honorable Retirement to Rev. Betty Meadows, retiring as Transitional General Presbyter and to Rev. Tom Tate, retiring as Pastor of Plaza Church.

Ministry Resource Committee Moderator Rev. Robert Austell presented the recommendation from the Presbytery Council to form an Administrative Committee to sell the Presbytery-owned property known as Fellowship Point. This commission would be authorized to list this property for sale, evaluate offers and select a buyer, and close the sale of the property on behalf of the Presbytery.

The Rev. Rush Otey Co-Pastor of Selwyn Ave. Presbyterian Church made a motion to table the vote on the sale of the Fellowship Point property to allow the committee more time to research other uses of the property. This might include potential use for affordable housing or use of land for Habitat houses. The motion was approved by a majority show of hands.

An additional motion was also made to postpone the hiring of an Associate General Presbyter until the finances for the sale of Fellowship Point could be determined to fund this new position.

This motion to delay was approved by a majority show of hands.

Following lunch, the Racism Task Force update was moderated by the Katie Harrington and Olanda Carr. They introduced Justin Perry and Lucy Bush Carter who presented information regarding "All Presbyterian Reads 2018". The suggested book is Color and Character: West Charlotte High and the American Struggle over Education Equality by Pamela Grundy. Target timing will be Fall of 2018 with discussion questions be provided. Each church is encouraged to communicate this opportunity to their congregation, and to design a way that participants can discuss what they have read...ideally in a multicultural group. Find out more information at: <https://www.colorandcharacter.org>.

The Committee on Preparation for Ministry (CPM) was presented by Nancy Finlayson and Rev. Ron Nelson as co-moderators. Seventeen Candidates for Ministry and twelve Inquirers were listed with their Sponsoring Church and Seminary.

Daniel Heath of Covenant Presbyterian of Charlotte spoke to his Statement of Faith and was recommended by the CPM to be enrolled as a candidate in the preparation for ministry process.

John Nowaczewski of Sharon Presbyterian examination consisted of his statement of calling and sermon, with an opportunity for questions to the candidate following the sermon. He has sustained examination by the CPM in the areas of the Bible, Theology, Polity, Worship and Sacraments as well.

Committee on Ministry Report Part II was moderated by Rev. Tim Bostick to approve the transfers of Rev. Anna Rainey Dickson, Parish Associate at Myers Park Church and John Nowaczewski, Temporary Pastor at Saint Andrews Church (pending his ordination). Additionally, the recommendation to appoint an Administrative Commission to merge Plaza and Johnston Memorial Presbyterian Churches. The has been a lengthy ongoing process for 25 years and was approved by the Presbytery.
